

Close to you.

Women's Services at Affinity Medical Center

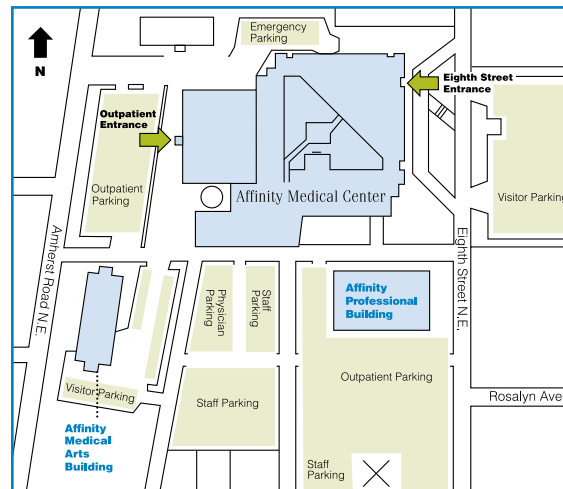

Affinity Medical Center offers a full range of women's services in a caring, compassionate environment. Our knowledgeable healthcare professionals will guide you through your care with compassion and respect for your privacy and comfort.

Services include:

- The Birthing Center
- Mammography
- Ultrasound
- Bone Density Scan
- Surgical Breast Biopsy

Map to Affinity Women's Services

The Birthing Center at Affinity is located on the third floor of the hospital, which can be accessed through the Outpatient Entrance. For more information, please call 330.830.3400.

Diagnostic Services are located on the ground floor of the hospital, which is easily accessed through the Outpatient Entrance. For more information, please call 330.837.6895.

Close to you.

875 Eighth St. N.E., Massillon, Ohio 44646
877.837.7575

AffinityMedicalCenter.com

08STP

Affinity Women's Services

Close to you.

The Birthing Center

From the cozy decor of the family lounge and patient rooms to the intimacy of our birthing rooms, Affinity Medical Center combines comfortable, homelike surroundings with the most current, innovative practices for a truly remarkable birthing experience.

No two families are alike. That's why we offer choices to satisfy each individual family. Methods of delivery, family involvement and support needs are all determined by the mother-to-be and our caring staff. The main support person can be involved as much as desired, and special visiting privileges are available for children and grandparents.

Childbirth Classes

Expectant mothers are invited to prepare for their new addition through a wide array of preparatory classes, including childbirth, siblings, baby basics, breast-feeding and infant CPR.

For a complete schedule of the childbirth classes, please visit us online at AffinityMedicalCenter.com or call 330.830.3400.

Mammography

Mammography is an X-ray technique that creates an image of the breast for detecting cancer or other abnormalities. This image is called a mammogram. Our state-of-the-art equipment allows us to achieve incredibly detailed mammograms using only a very small amount of radiation.

The female technologists at Affinity Medical Center are certified SOFTER MAMMOGRAM providers and use the MammoPad, a small cushion for gentler imaging. Our mammography unit and our mammography technologists are accredited by the American College of Radiology. Brochures and other educational materials are available.

Ultrasound

Whether you are in need of an ultrasound to examine a potential abnormality seen on a mammogram, to explore the cause of pelvic pain, or for a prenatal ultrasound to check the health of your baby, Affinity Medical Center's specially trained technicians will guide you through this painless procedure.

Surgical Breast Biopsy

Although mammography is an excellent way to detect breast abnormalities, in many cases further procedures are needed to determine whether a growth is cancerous. A surgical breast biopsy is a less invasive procedure used to take breast tissue samples that can then be examined microscopically. Talk to your physician about this procedure.

Bone Density Scanning

Bone density scanning is an enhanced form of x-ray technology that is used to detect and track bone loss associated with osteoporosis. Although more common in women after menopause, osteoporosis can also affect men.

